D: Jesus said to him: J: "Put back your sword where it belongs. Those who use the sword are sooner or later destroyed by it. Do you not suppose I can call on my Father to provide at a moment's notice more than twelve legions of angels? But then how would the Scriptures be fulfilled which say it must happen this way?" D: At that very time Jesus addressed the crowd:

J: "Am I a brigand, that you have come armed with swords and clubs to arrest me? From day to day I sat teaching in the temple precincts, yet you never arrested me. Nonetheless, all this has happened in fulfillment of the writings of the prophets."

D: Then all the disciples deserted him and fled. Those who had apprehended Jesus led him off to to be handed over to the procurator Pilate. Then Judas, who had handed him over, seeing that Jesus had been condemned, began to regret his action deeply. He took the thirty pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders and said, T1: "I did wrong to deliver up an innocent man!"

D: The chief priests picked up the silver, observing, MEN: "It is not right to deposit this money in the temple treasury since it is blood money." D: After consultation, they used it to buy the potter's field as a cemetery for foreigners. That is why that field, even today, is called Blood Field.

On that occasion, what was said through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of a man with a price on his head, a price set by the Israelites, and they paid it out for the potter's field just as the Lord had commanded me." (pause)

Now on the occasion of a festival the procurator was accustomed to release one prisoner, whom the crowd would designate. They had at that time a notorious prisoner named Barabbas.

his wife sent him a message: sung Sp3: "Do not interfere in the case of that holy man. I had

D: Many women were present looking on from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to attend to his needs. Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons. When evening fell, a wealthy man from Arimathea arrived, Joseph by name. He was another of Jesus' disciples, and had gone to request the body of Jesus. Thereupon Pilate issued an order for its release. Taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in fresh linen and laid it in his own new tomb which had been hewn from a formation of rock.

Then he rolled a huge stone across the entrance of the tomb and went away. But Mary Magdalene and the other Mary remained sitting there, facing the tomb. (pause) The next day, the one following the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees called at Pilate's residence.

"Sir," they said, "we have recalled that that imposter while he was still alive made the claim, an order having the tomb kept under surveillance until the third day. Otherwise his disciples may go and steal him and tell the people, 'He has been raised from the dead!' This final imposture would be worst than the first." Pilate told them. Bs2: "You have a guard. Go and se- cure the tomb as best you can." rit.
